LETTER OF ACADEMIC COLLABORATION BETWEEN
JD INTERNATIONAL DESIGN SCHOOL (hereafter JDIDS)
&
NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF DESIGN (hereafter INSTITUTE)

For the purpose of further promotion of mutual understanding and reciprocal cooperation, JDIDS and INSTITUTE do hereby agree to collaborate in regard to international programs based on the mutual interest between both parties in the manner and explanation of conditions specified below.

1. Based on the principles of mutual benefit and respect for each other's independence, the two institutions will encourage:
 - a) Exchange of students
 - b) Exchange of information
 - c) Joint seminars and workshops
 - d) Exchange of faculty members
 - e) Joint promotional activities
 - f) Other academic exchange that both parties agree to

2. In order to carry out the above-mentioned activities, a detailed plan must be agreed to upon consultation between two institutes. Parts commit to appoint projects manager and/or faculty staff (where course development or student exchange is foreseen) in order to develop the agreed projects.

3. It is implicit that each and every activity undertaken under this agreement is approved by the appropriate officials at each institute and must fall within each institute's academic and fiscal constraints.

4. The agreement will commence on the date of signatures for a period of five years and maybe modified or extended by mutual consent of both parties.
5. This MOU is designed to facilitate and develop a genuine and mutually beneficial exchange process/research relationship, and so forth.
6. JDIDS will develop and expand international interaction with INSTITUTE through various collaborative projects.
7. Parts commit to mutual oral and written confidentiality concerning the material exchange, in particular concerning the program content, plan of study, organizational structure and any other non-public information. Language of documentation exchange will be English.
8. This agreement may be modified after re-negotiation between two institutes.
